

South Trinity Broads Benefice Cycle Route

ACCESS TO CHURCHES

Filby, Runham & Stokesby are all open during daylight hours
 Mautby is open 24/7
 Fleggburgh is locked – the key is available at The Kings Arms PH
 Billockby is locked ~ key is available at the Billockby Farm Office (on the main road) during working hours.

CHURCHES

- 1 Filby, All Saints
- 2 Thrigby, St Mary
- 3 Mautby, SS Peter & Paul
- 4 Runham, SS Peter & Paul
- 5 Stokesby, St Andrew
- 6 Billockby, All Saints
- 7 Fleggburgh, St Margaret

RIVERSIDE TEA ROOMS AND STORES

THE GREEN, STOKESBY
 Open 7am-7pm every day. All day breakfast, lunch, snacks, teas & coffee. Homemade cakes. BIKE HIRE AVAILABLE

FERRY INN, STOKESBY

A pleasant spot by the river to watch the boats go by. Riverside garden – traditional ales. Open daily serving lunch and evening meals

FILBY BRIDGE RESTAURANT
 Overlooking the beautiful and tranquil Trinity Broads. Tea rooms with homemade cakes, tea and coffee. Offering a wide range of home cooked food. Open 10am-3pm (4pm Sundays). Closed Mondays.

BUTTONWICK BAKERY, MAUTBY
 Bread, pastries, meat pies, scones, etc. Baked fresh daily. Open for morning coffee, afternoon tea. Open Tues, Weds, Thurs, Saturday 10am-3pm.

UNITARIAN CHAPEL REMAINS
 On this Unitarian Heritage Site you will find the remains of the oldest Dissenter's Chapel in Norfolk, founded in 1705 by Henry Dalziel, it's first minister.

THRIGBY MILL
 Thrigby Mill is open to the public on certain occasions and by special arrangement with the owner. Please call in if you would like a visit.

HERRINGBY
 The hamlet of Herringby is situated on the road to Runham and consists of only six dwellings. At the time of the Domesday Book, salt works existed here and it was held by the Conqueror himself. There was a church dedicated to St Ethelbert, but it fell into disrepair and James 1st annexed the parish to Stokesby in 1616.

THRIGBY HALL WILDLIFE GARDENS
 Home to a selection of animals of Asia set in acres of lovely grounds in the Norfolk countryside. Open daily from 10am. Children's play area – Cafe and Gift Shop.

THE FOX & HOUNDS, FILBY
 Traditional home cooked meals and bar snacks. Food available from 12 onwards. Families welcome.

THE KINGS ARMS, FLEGGBURGH
 Food served all day. Families welcome.

